Remember me, Oh God - In my affliction

Your daughters call upon your name

I'm not full of new wine, but Holy Spirit
C#m E B
Tossed in the wake of my shame

Amaj7 B
If you read the lips of this silent prayer

Favor your servant, my aim to bear
Amaj7 B Amaj7 B
No razor shall come to a single hair of our young - of our young

E Eb/B C#m B (x 3)
Let the joy that lives in me leap in your proximity

Oh mothers of Israel behold the son
A B C#m B A B C#m B
Who has opened the womb of the barren you have opened the womb of the barren.

A B
You have opened the womb

Remember me, Oh God
In my condition
Your daughters call upon your name
We do not fear the snow
We're draped in scarlet
Hued by the blood of the lamb.

May we raise our children to call us blessed and bathe them with tongues of righteousness
as we will claim them back from the jackal's breast
We will claim them back. We will claim them back.

CHORUS
