

Then Sings My Soul

Jeremy Quillo, Carl G. Boberg, and R. J. Hughes

G G/F# E^m
Here is my life, frail as it may be,

D
Tossed along the sea,
D⁷

Still I lay it down

And on the hand of Christ, a scar to save my life,
The greatest sacrifice
So I lay it down

C G
Then sings my soul
A song to my Savior,

C G/F#
A song to my God,
E^m D

Oh, how great You are

Here is my song, a sinner's prayer for love
Though words are not enough,
Still I lay it down
And at the feet of Christ is where I find new life,
This is my sacrifice
So I lay it down

Here is my heart, Lord take it for Your own,
Though it once was made of stone,
Still I lay it down
And through the eyes of Christ is how You see my life,
This is my sacrifice,
So I lay it down
